

O Flag; Saga of Courage

Over many battles you have flown,
Majestic, beautiful, though torn.
Many threats challenge your flight;
You wave victorious America's rights.

The dedicated courage of America's will,
Powers God's world through patriots' skill.
Protecting the right of America when born,
You signal a warning to the wrongs you scorn.

Your glorious wave reminds all still,
Our principles stand with courage and will.
They'll know defeat for making a threat,
Though some ills may linger yet.

O flag with your inspiring flight,
Glorious virtues you ignite.
The worth of one and the esteem of all,
With fortitude forthright, you sound the call.

Dedicated citizens answer the call,
Practicing positive virtues all,
Victories we'll celebrate and fly you bright,
With glory and pride your deserving flight.

Liberty to speak and power to pray,
For God's blessing to keep us this way.
Faithful integrity is our tradition,
Accountability sustains our mission.

Our heroes with vision stand tall to fight,
Undaunted, proclaiming America's right.
Positive tradition and virtue's will
Inspire your people on Patriots' Hill!

Author: Vincent B. Farese

© Copyright 2002 - www.sagaofcourage.com